AmaDahlia

Stateroom Overview

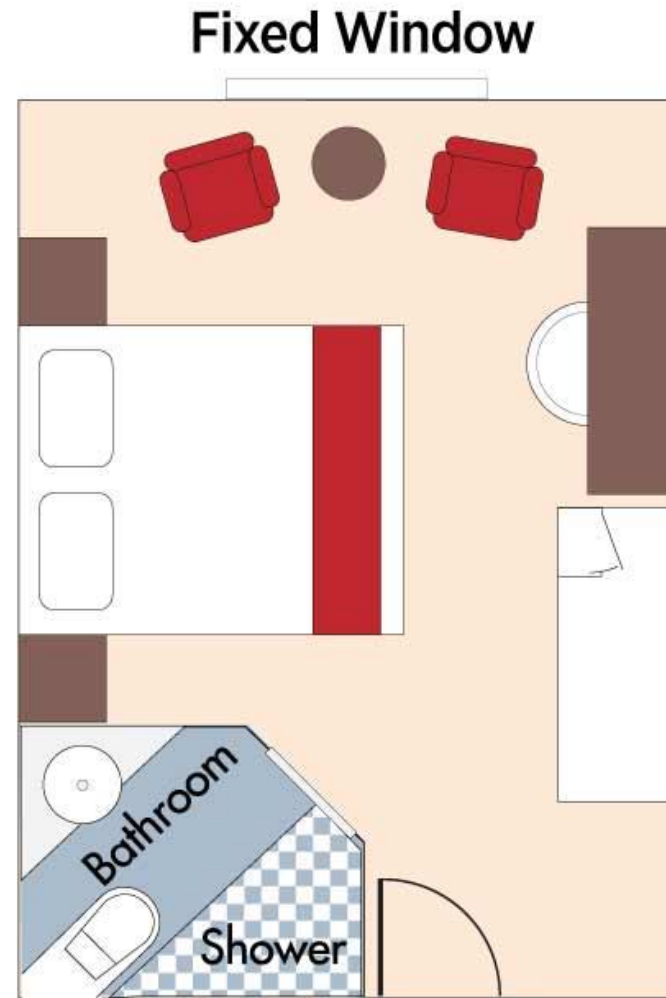

- The AmaDahlia has 36 staterooms and carries a max of 72 guests.
- 16 staterooms are full-balcony suites (a rare feature for a Nile cruise ship). Stateroom sizes are between (225-430 square feet) but the walk out balconies are very small.
- There are 6 cabin categories on 3 decks for this 5-deck vessel.
- Each passenger cabin offers as standard (complimentary) amenities on-suite bathroom (glass-door shower, rain showerhead, hairdryer, premium bath amenities), mirrored vanity table with chair, and a wardrobe.

There are 6 Different Stateroom Categories

- 4 Category E staterooms are 194 square feet and have a fixed window that cannot be opened.
- 16 Category C staterooms have a total of 226 square feet, along with a French balcony.
- 12 Category SA and SB staterooms have Twin Balconies with a very small step out balcony and a French Balcony, with a total size of 370 square feet.
- The 2 Master Suites on Lotus Deck are 400 square feet and have a French balcony.
- There are 2 Grand Suites are located just below the Navigation Bridge on Lily Deck, with 430 square feet. It has a step-out balcony that wraps around the front and side of the ship.
